ALPHA BANK AE ANNOUNCES
AMENDMENTS TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFERS

6 November 2015. Alpha Bank AE (the Offeror) announces today amendments to the terms and conditions of the previously announced Exchange Offers relating to the securities described in the table below (each a Series and together the Existing Securities) and its decision not to implement the Proposals even if the relevant Extraordinary Resolutions or Special Resolution are passed.

This announcement should be read together with the exchange offer memorandum dated 28 October 2015 (the Exchange Offer Memorandum) prepared by the Offeror (as amended as provided below). The Exchange Offers are subject to the offer restrictions set out below as more fully described in the Exchange Offer Memorandum.

Securityholders are advised to read carefully this announcement together with the Exchange Offer Memorandum, copies of which are (subject to distribution restrictions) available from the Dealer Managers and the Exchange Agent as set out below.

Capitalised terms used in this announcement but not defined have the meanings given to them in the Exchange Offer Memorandum.

To the extent that there is any inconsistency between any statement in this announcement and any statement in the Exchange Offer Memorandum, the statements in this announcement will prevail.

BACKGROUND TO AMENDMENTS

The reason for amending the Exchange Offers is as a result of a number of developments following the publication of the Exchange Offer Memorandum which are discussed below.

On 1 November, 2015 several amendments were introduced, by virtue of law 4340/2015, to the provisions of Greek law 3864/2010 on the operation of the HFSF. Such amendments, among others, set out the conditions if the HFSF is to provide precautionary recapitalisation support to Greek credit institutions. One of such conditions is that the credit institution falls within the exemption of article 32 par. 4(d) of the BRRD (i.e. that it is eligible for precautionary state-aid capital support). For the Offeror to meet this condition, it would need to satisfy the Equity Condition (i.e. address the Incurred Loss Capital Requirements of €263 million as determined under the Comprehensive Assessment) by way of capital raising measures, including through the Exchange Offers. The potential consequences of failure to meet the Equity Condition are described in the Exchange Offer Memorandum.

A further condition to the provision of such precautionary recapitalisation capital support by the HFSF is the imposition (by virtue of a Cabinet Act, pursuant to article 6a of law 3864/2010, as amended) of mandatory burden sharing measures on the holders of capital instruments and other liabilities of the credit institution receiving such support (the Mandatory Burden Sharing Measures). The Mandatory Burden Sharing Measures are imposed on holders of equity instruments, hybrid and subordinated notes and senior debt instruments, such as the Senior Securities (the Eligible For Bail-in Instruments). The Mandatory Burden

Sharing Measures include the power of the Greek Cabinet to impose either a write-down of the value of the Eligible for Bail-in Instruments or their conversion into equity.

The Offeror is expected to receive precautionary recapitalisation capital support if the Exchange Offers and any institutionally bookbuilt offering of Ordinary Shares satisfy the Equity Condition but fail to raise €2.743 billion, being the amount required by the Offeror under the adverse scenario in the Comprehensive Assessment. In such circumstances, prior to the provision of support by the HFSF, Mandatory Burden Sharing Measures are expected to be imposed on the Eligible For Bail-in Instruments of the Offeror, including any Senior Securities and other Existing Securities in respect of which offers to exchange in the Exchange Offers are not made and accepted by the Offeror. If Mandatory Burden Sharing Measures are imposed, it is not possible for the Offeror to predict to what extent such Existing Securities may be written-down or (if converted) the extent of conversion and the number of Ordinary Shares to which holders will be entitled.

AMENDMENTS TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE EXCHANGE OFFERS

1. Postponement of the Early Instruction Deadline and amendments to the Expiration Deadline

The Early Instruction Deadline is postponed to 5:00 p.m. (London time) on 12 November 2015, subject to the right of the Offeror to extend, re-open and/or terminate the Exchange Offers.

The Expiration Deadline is the Early Instruction Deadline, as amended, and any references in the Exchange Offer Memorandum to the Expiration Deadline shall be construed accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Early Instruction Deadline/Expiration Deadline is the ultimate and only deadline to participate in the Exchange Offers.

The relevant deadlines set by any intermediary or Clearing System will be earlier than these deadlines.

Settlement of the Exchange Offers, if any, will only occur on the Early Settlement Date which shall occur before the Early Equity Settlement Date. The Final Settlement Date, the Final Exercise Period and the Final Equity Settlement Date are cancelled. The Final Settlement Prospectus will not be published and the Settlement Instruments will not be issued.

2. Options available during the Early Exercise Period

During the Early Exercise Period only the following Options will be available:

Option 2 – Only available to Permitted Equityholders.

Option 3 – Only available to Non-Permitted Equityholders.

Option 1 is cancelled.

The Early Exercise Period is expected to start on 9 November 2015, following release of an offering circular for an institutionally bookbuilt offering of Ordinary Shares, and to end at 5:00 p.m. (London time) on 12 November 2015. In order to participate in the Exchange Offers, Securityholders will be required to exercise Option 2 or 3 when submitting Exchange Instructions.

3. Non Implementation of the Proposals

The Meetings will be held on the dates specified in the Exchange Offer Memorandum but the relevant Proposals will not be implemented by the relevant Issuers.

4. Securityholders eligible to submit Exchange Instructions before the Early Instruction Deadline

The Exchange Offers are not being made, and will not be made, directly or indirectly, in or into the United States. Any purported offers to exchange Existing Securities pursuant to one or more of the Exchange Offers resulting directly or indirectly from a violation of these restrictions will be invalid and offers of Existing Securities for exchange made by a resident of the United States or by any agent, fiduciary or other intermediary acting on a non-discretionary basis for a nominee giving instructions from within the United States will be invalid and will not be accepted.

Subject to the above, Securityholders (including, for the avoidance of doubt, holders of the Jersey Securities) who can submit Exchange Instructions before the Early Instruction Deadline are Non-Permitted Equityholders and Permitted Equityholders, as defined below.

Non-Permitted Equityholders

A Non-Permitted Equityholder is a person or entity to which an offer of Ordinary Shares cannot validly be made pursuant to applicable securities laws without the publication of a valid prospectus.

Non-Permitted Equityholders include the following:

- a. in the case of a Securityholder that is based in a member state of the European Economic Area (a Relevant Member State), a Securityholder that is not:
 - i. a “qualified investor” within the meaning of the law in the Relevant Member State implementing Article 2(1)(e) of the Prospectus Directive;
 - ii. an investor who would be entitled to receive a number of Ordinary Shares (if it were permitted to select Option 2 and without regard to any rounding) which, if multiplied by the Share Price and expressed in euros, would exceed €100,000; or
 - iii. a person based in a Relevant Member State to whom the offer of Ordinary Shares may otherwise be made pursuant to applicable laws and regulations; and
- b. in the case of a Securityholder that is based outside of the European Economic Area and is not located or resident in the United States, a person or entity to which an offer of Ordinary Shares could not lawfully be made pursuant to applicable securities laws.

Permitted Equityholders

A Permitted Equityholder is a person or entity that is not a Non-Permitted Equityholder.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Securityholder that is based in the Hellenic Republic is a Permitted Equityholder.

5. Definitions of Option 3 Resale Completion Date and Option 3 Resale Period

Any reference to “Final Equity Settlement Date” in the definitions of Option 3 Resale Completion Date and Option 3 Resale Period shall be deemed to be deleted and replaced with references to the “Early Equity Settlement Date”.

6. Definition of Share Price amended

The definition of Share Price is amended as follows:

“the price at which any Ordinary Shares, offered pursuant to an institutional bookbuilding process completed before the Early Settlement Date, are placed with such institutional investors, with such price also communicated in the manner described under “Notices” below.”

Exchange Instructions already submitted

Exchange Instructions already submitted by Securityholders before the date of this announcement will be void. If those Securityholders want to participate in the Exchange Offers, as amended, they will be required to submit new Exchange Instructions before the Early Instruction Deadline/Expiration Deadline.

OTHER IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Substitution of the relevant Issuers

The Offeror is currently in the process of taking all necessary steps to arrange for the substitution of itself as issuer of all the Existing Securities, other than the Preferred Securities, in lieu of the relevant Issuers and such substitution is expected to be effective before the Expiration Deadline.
