

André Küüsvek

Director for Local Currency and Capital Markets Development (LC2)

André Küüsvek is the Director for Local Currency and Capital Markets Development (LC2) at the EBRD (www.ebrd.com), the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, a multinational development bank owned by 67 governments and 2 international organisations. André is a member of the EBRD Asset and Liability Committee. André has three external Board memberships – he is the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Rail Baltic Estonia (www.rbestonia.ee), a Member of the Board of the Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (www.feas.org) and a Member of the Board Steering Committee of the Athens Exchange Group (www.athexgroup.gr).

André's earlier career with the EBRD includes being a Country Director in Ukraine, the second largest country of EBRD investment, in 2008-2013; and a Country Director in Kazakhstan in 2004-2008. Before this, André led project teams investing equity and debt in financial institutions across the EBRD region in 1996-2004, simultaneously being the EBRD-wide coordinator for capital markets and stock exchanges and the financial sector coordinator for several countries. André has served on the boards of over 30 banks, insurance companies, equity funds and enterprises.

André started his banking career as one of the first commercial bankers in Estonia in 1992, heading the international departments of Tartu Kommertspank and Bank of Tallinn. He then moved to Germany, working for a private bank Schröder Münchmeyer Hengst, and for Dresdner Bank until 1996.

An Estonian national, André graduated with MSc from Tallinn University of Technology, studying also in Sweden, Germany, Finland and Hungary. He is a graduate of Estonian Business School and Stockholm School of Economics. André is fluent in five languages.
