

FTSE/ATHEX Global Traders Index Series

Characteristics, Methodology, Constituents

Data as at 31 October

ATHEX in cooperation with FTSE, designed a new index series to enable the monitoring of the market performance of the listed companies that have highly globalised activity either in exports or through production abroad. These indices record and highlight in the globalized investment community the transnational character of the Greek companies which is constantly strengthened.

The creation of the new index series intends to establish a new approach in gaining international attention and generating investment products.
